Soon the little town was behind him.

He trotted past the little red cottage.

The dog took the bone very carefully in his mouth.

The dog stepped onto the wooden bridge.

Once upon a time, there lived a happy little dog in a small, friendly town.

Off he went, trotting down the lane with his prize.

One sunny morning, the dog trotted past the butcher's shop.

The kind butcher reached behind the counter and pulled out a big, juicy bone.
